We are looking to invite a Women and Childrens' Gospel Worker to join our staff team, starting February 2025.

About Our Ministry

We meet across three congregations in the beating heart of multi-cultural Sydney. We are passionate about cross-cultural evangelism; and we rejoice to be a taste of heaven in our diverse Sunday gatherings.

We believe in and express a complementarian model of the partnership of men and women in the ministry of the gospel.

About the Role

The Women and Children's Gospel Worker will be developing and training women for their ministry in the home, the church and the world; developing and running children's ministry across all congregations; and supporting the overall mission of the parish.

We would love to hear about your gifts and passions and how it could also shape this role.

About You

We are looking for a woman who:

- has a heart for cross-cultural mission, and for multi-cultural church;
- is willing to work with our leadership team (Hugh Jonas, Ben George, Tim Cocks)
- has a theological qualification
- has complementarian convictions of the partnership of men and women in the ministry of the gospel
- ideally is gifted in a language in addition to English. Although this is not essential.
- has met all safe ministry requirements

To Apply

If you would like to apply, please email a cover letter outlining your suitability, a ministry CV, and the names of 2 referees (including the senior minister of your current church) to Tim Cocks: tim@auburnanglican.org.

Or feel free to get in touch with any questions you may have. We would love to hear from you.
